

Social Story

Today I'm visiting:

The Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk in Walpole-Nornalup National Park

Supported by

Department of Biodiversity,
Conservation and Attractions

Every Kid in a Park

Social Story

This is a Social Story™ about visiting the Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk in Walpole-Nornalup National Park.

Social stories help explain social situations to children and adults with autism spectrum disorder, intellectual disability, developmental delays and learning challenges.

A Social Story™ answers the 'wh' questions – where and when a situation occurs, who is involved, what is happening and why. We suggest the Social Story™ be meaningfully shared in a reassuring tone.

This Social Story™ aims to help people of all abilities to plan and prepare for their visit to Walpole-Nornalup National Park by explaining what they can expect on the day of their visit. This Social Story™ was developed by Nature Play WA in consultation with local educators.

The Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk in Walpole-Nornalup National Park is a place with tall trees to explore.

I might visit the gift shop.

I might see signs and displays of animals.

I might follow the Tree Top Walk high above the ground.

I might follow the Ancient Empire walk trail.

I am going to visit the Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk in Walpole-Nornalup National Park.

My trusted person will come with me.

I will need to wear comfortable walking shoes.

I will take a jacket on cold days.

I will bring a hat.

I will bring a water bottle.

I will bring sunscreen.

At the Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk there is a forest.

There are toilets.

There are walk trails, bridges and steps.

There is a gift shop.

I will see and hear wildlife and other people.

The Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk has lots of things to do.

I might walk on the Tree Top Walk high above the ground.

I might follow the path through the Ancient Empire walk.

I might see and hear birds like white-breasted robins, grey fantails and purple-crowned lorikeets.

I might see and hear reptiles, insects and spiders.

The Tree Top Walk is high above the ground.

The walkway will move in the wind as I walk across it.

My trusted person will be with me.

If I don't want to walk up high, I can follow the Ancient Empire walk on the ground.

At the Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk there are toilets.

If I need to go to the toilet my trusted person will show me where they are.

The Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk might be noisy sometimes.

I might hear noisy animals.

There might be people making noise.

If it is too noisy, I can put on my ear defenders or ear plugs.

My trusted person can take me to a quiet area.

When it is time to go home my trusted person will tell me.

The Valley of the Giants Tree Top Walk is lots of fun!

