

TOP 5 WALK TRAILS FOR FAMILIES IN PERTH

Our friends at Trails WA have shared their top-five walks to get you and your family started on the beautiful past time of trail walking. All the trails are perfect for beginners and are an easy drive from anywhere in the Perth area. Check out these trails on our Play in WA app. Enjoy!

1. Law Walk, Kings Park

0 km from Perth

The Law walk is one of the best entry level trails in Perth, taking you through King's Park botanical gardens, natural bushland, giving spectacular bird's eye views of the Swan River along the way, and with lots of spots to stop and play. Find the trail map and more info at Trails WA.

 3.7km return  Toilets, BBQ area, kiosk, shop, shelters

- No bushwalking experience required
- Access with assistance for disabled
- Dog friendly
- Bicycles prohibited
- Water access points

2. The Butterflies, Birds and Bridges Trail, Canning River Park

12 km from Perth

Located in the Canning River Regional Park, this trail winds through wetlands, meadows, and a paperbark forest, and is perfect for a half-day outing with a picnic. Find the trail map and more info at Trails WA.

 4km loop  Toilets, BBQ area, cafe, shelter

- No bushwalking experience required
- Access without assistance for disabled
- Bike path
- 97 bird species in the area
- Dog Friendly

3. Jenna Bidli Yorga, Blackwall Reach

18 km from Perth

Bidli Yorga trail is a beautiful cliff top walk, but it's also a special place for the Whadjuk Noongar people and a must-do walk for families. Find the trail map and more info at Trails WA.

 4km return  Toilets, BBQ area, cafe, shelter

- No bushwalking experience required
- Suitable for wheelchair users
- Dog Friendly
- Water access points

4. Blue Wren Ramble, Ellis Brook

40 km from Perth

The Blue Wren Ramble on the beautiful Ellis Brook Valley Reserve meanders through dense shrubs and woodland that are home to blue wrens, parrots, pardalotes and wedge-tail eagles. Find the trail map and more info at Trails WA.

 2.8km return  Toilets, picnic area

- Abundant birdlife
- No water available
- Multiple nearby trails

5. Dwerta Mia Walk Trail, Yanchep National Park

51 km from Perth

The Dwerta Mia Walk in Yanchep National Park is a trail that inspires children's imaginations with its rich Aboriginal cultural heritage, lush greenery, limestone cliffs and resident kangaroos. Find the trail map and more info at Trails WA.

 1km return  Toilets, BBQ area, cafe, shelter

- No bushwalking experience required
- 500m disabled access circuit
- Kangaroos
- Wildflowers Sept-Nov
- No dogs allowed
- National Park Fees apply